MAGNOLIA

The Junior-Senior Prom created an image of a southern plantation. The first sight the seniors saw was the banquet with its cotton balls, Dixie Flags, umbrellas, and programs announcing the theme, "Magnolia Mansion". A number of sophomores were selected to serve as waitors and waitresses. Mr. George Turner was the guest speaker.

At the dance the students entered a moonlit southern garden in the midst of magnolia blossoms. There was a flowered arbor at the entrance. Inside an ivy staircase lead to a balcony. Magnolia trees in front of a garden wall, and a majestic gazebo made the setting for the band.

MANSION

A setting of Southern hospitality was created by the mansion with its draping curtains, large paintings, chandeliers, and candles set individually in a magnolia blossom. The highlight was a pink cupid fountain surrounded by greenery. In the pool of water swam shimmering gold fish. All of this was accented by an untraviolet light shining from the ceiling.

Much credit should be given to the juniors who spent countless hours preparing for one night. All the stuffing paper into chicken wire, mixing cement, painting, cutting card board, and making magnolias turned out one of the most fabulous proms ever presented by any class.

The Class of 1963 was proud of — the Class of 1962, thankful for "Magnolia Mansion".

S - CLUB

The basketball, football, track, golf, and tennis players are eligible for S-Club membership. After completing quite a rigorous initiation, the boys become full-fledged members.

Members of the lettermen's club are easily spotted, as they wear the leather sleeved purple and gold jackets or the gold sweaters with the purple "S". This year the S-Club voted to purchase letter sweaters rather than letter jackets. Getting these new sweaters called for new regulations. If a freshman won a letter, he would receive the frosh numeral. Then the boys would receive a letter sweater for winning a major award in any of the five main sports. The basis for the major letter awards would be determined by the coaches. In the event of winning the conference championship, the team would be able to purchase letter jackets. The S-Club members wore their letter sweaters, white shirts, and black ties on the days that varsity games were being played. This did much to boost school spirit and game attendance.

By ushering at the fieldhouse, working concessions, sponsoring the Relay's Dance, and canvassing Spencer with season athletic tickets, the S-Club, under the direction of Mr. Bill Cook, made the year a big success.

OFFICERS: President Dennis VandeVegte, Vice-President Dave Simington, Secretary-Treasurers Doug Dawson and Charlie Greer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

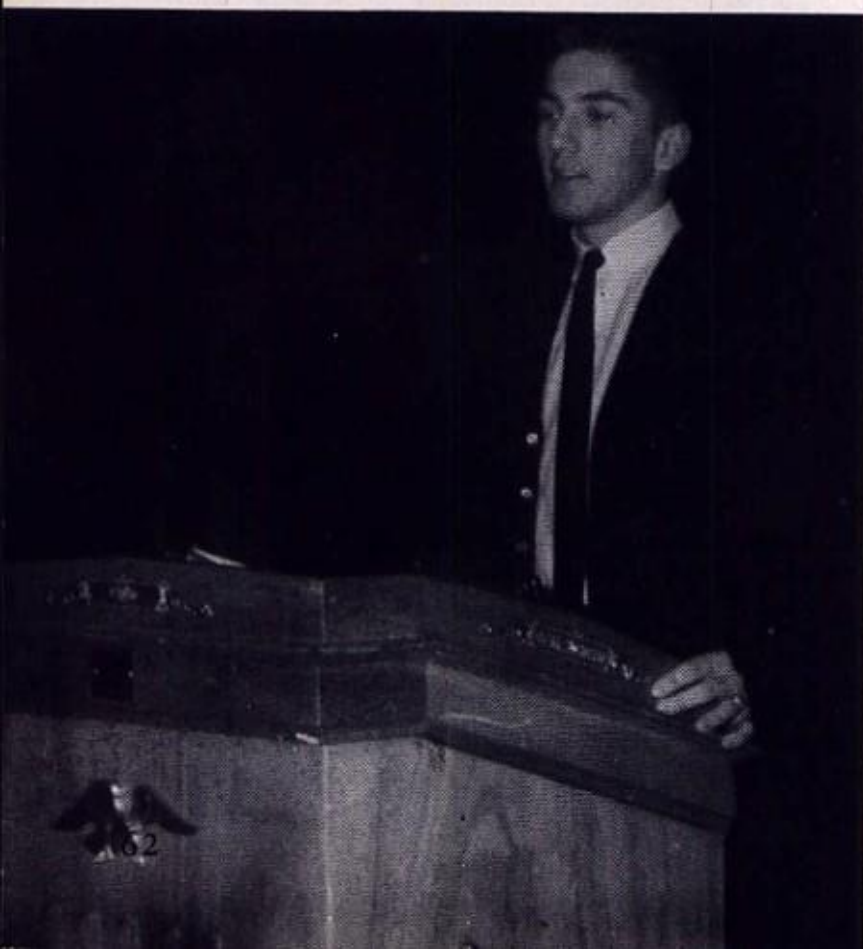

The major undertaking of the Student Council was the Homecoming festivities. Since Homecoming is primarily designated to honor alumni, we decided to try to get as many alumni as possible to participate. The publicity committee went to work and obtained very fine coverage from KICD and the Reporter.

Preparation for Homecoming began early in the week when each homeroom began building its miniature float. The miniature float plan was inaugurated this year to arouse interest and participation in Homecoming by the student body. The only limitation was that they had to be made for less than $5.00 apiece.

On Wednesday after school the traditional window painting contest started. Any organization that wished could enter the contest. Student Council gave prizes to the first three places.

Heidi Keir and Patti Keninger were in charge of decorating the Legion Hall according to our theme, "Starlight." These girls and much of the student body put a lot of work on the decorations.

The Student Council feels that this was one of our most successful Homecomings, for both students and their parents were made more aware of the school.

COUNCIL

Throughout the year Student Council has sponsored several fine assemblies and lecture-type programs. Among them were the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, which high school students not only participated in but also planned.

Another of the Council's main projects was the holiday dance. We departed from tradition and had an informal hop instead of a semi-formal dance. Peter McClain of KWMT was the DJ for the evening. This dance, too, was a big success.

Student Council inaugurated another new project this year—that of the Christmas decorations contest. Student Council purchased enough decorative candles for each window on the west side of the building. The homerooms decorated these windows with Christmas lights and balls, and the students voted on the best one. On December 17 the window lights were switched on for the first time. This ceremony was followed by a program of carol singing by the student body.

The Council's purpose was to increase the students' awareness of school activities.

This year the seniors again set out to publish that traditional "biggest and best annual ever." Undaunted by ruined lay-out sheets, incomplete assignments, lost negatives, blurry pictures, and a few "minor" mishaps, we managed to meet our deadline. As March drew near, we could be seen frantically arranging pictures and finishing last minute typing. A lot of time and hard work has gone into these pages. We're proud of our '63 Spencerian.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Future Teachers is an organization open to any junior or senior interested in teaching as a career. As tomorrow's teachers, these students plan for their careers. Through active club meetings and actual practice, the girls learn what will be expected of them when they hold their own classes.

The Future Teachers major project this year was attending Prospective Teachers Day at Cedar Falls on the campus of the State College of Iowa. Other activities included observing and teaching for a week in various grade school classes and in county programs at Royal and at Greenville-Rossie where Mr. Ryan was the guest speaker. These projects were designed to aid the members in deciding whether or not to enter the teaching profession after graduation. Miss Claire Powell is the club's sponsor.

HEALTH CAREERS

The purpose of Health Careers is to provide an opportunity for any high school student, boy or girl, to become acquainted with the various fields of medicine.

The Club was formerly known as Future Nurses, but the group decided to change it to Health Careers so that all students interested in medicine could join. We had no male members this year, but hope to have in coming years.

This year the group profited by a trip to Sioux City, where they toured hospitals and schools of nursing. In order to provide funds for this trip, the group held an annual Christmas Tea, sold baked goods, and held other money making projects.

The community profited by the club's help at the Clay County Polio Clinic and at the Crippled Children's Clinic.

Miss Betty Barton, school nurse, is the adviser.

Diane Sundeen, Barbara Breidinger, Lynn Hanson, Kathy Weiskircher.

OFFICERS: Anne Snell, Vice-President; Diane Black, President; Diane Condra, Secretary; Mary Martin, Treasurer.

OFFICERS: Steve Ball, Secretary; Dwight Rutter, Reporter; Dave Stricker, Treasurer; Dave Simington, President; Dave Schmid, Vice-

Under the leadership of Dave Simington, chapter president and Dave Schmid, vice-president, the Spencer FFA Chapter enjoyed another year full of accomplishments and recognition.

We launched the year's activities with a top-ranked performance at the Clay County Fair. We built and displayed the grand champion agricultural exhibit, placed 11th out of 58 teams in the livestock judging contest, and won a red ribbon on a demonstration on farm chemicals. Dave Schmid again demonstrated his herdsman's ability when his pen of three market barrows were named grand champion over 267 other entries in the show.

Otto Clausen, Mike Toelle, Paul Schmid and Bennet Johanson attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City where they observed one of our graduate members, Richard Hummel, receive the highest degree in our organization, the American Farmer Degree.

At the National Dairy Cattle Congress in Waterloo our dairy judging team composed of Tom Juza, John Weiskircher won a gold award rating in dairy judging and was named the top team in Iowa in the dairy pedigree class.

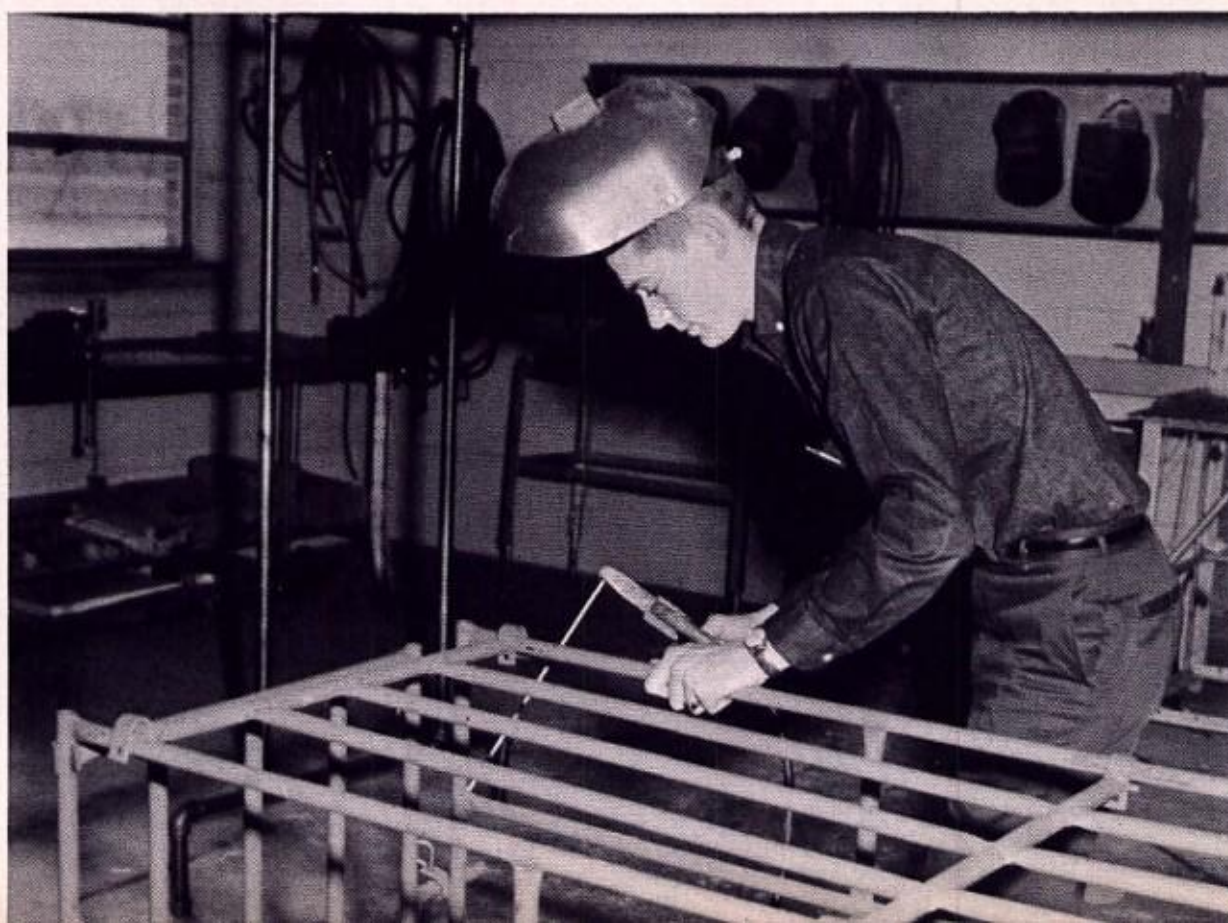

We were host to our parents and friends at a Parent and Son Banquet at Stub's Ranch Kitchen during National FFA Week. We entertained our parents with a complete program put on by our own chapter members. Dave Kaus and Steve Ball, with a narrated, colored slide presentation on chapter activities, highlighted the evening.

F. H. A.

Future Homemakers of America is an organization for high school girls who have completed at least one semester of Homemaking. "Toward New Horizons" expresses the purpose of the club, planning tomorrow's happy homes.

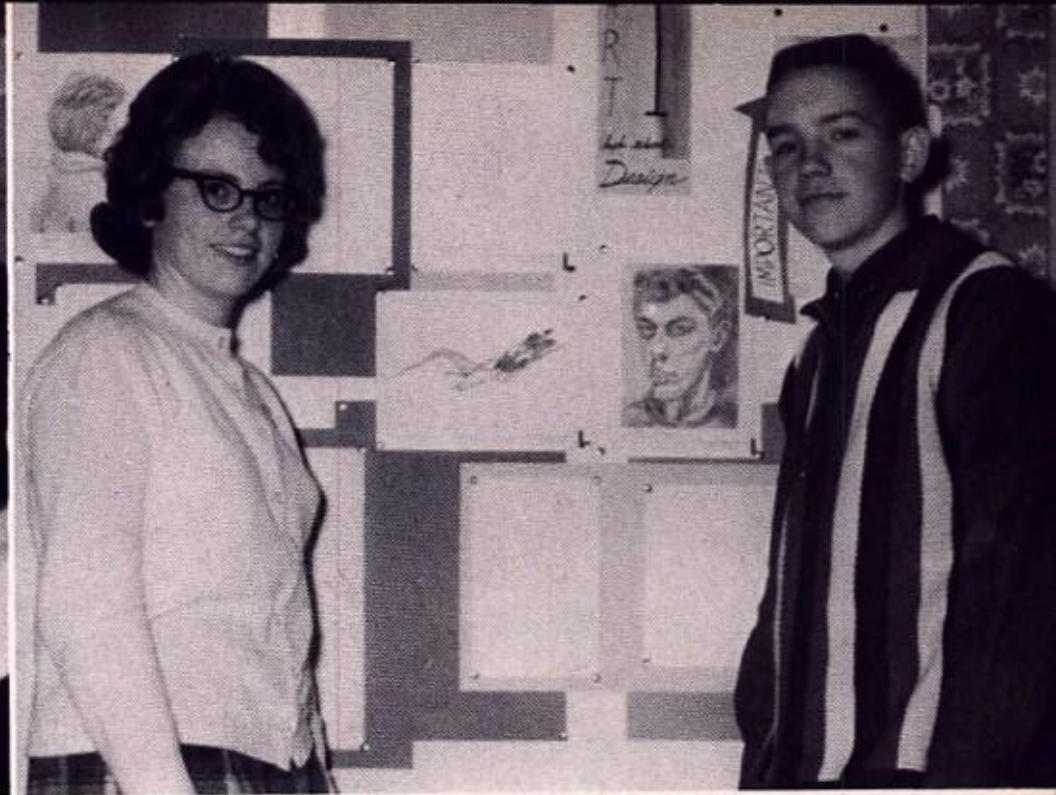

The outstanding events this year include very interesting talks on hairstyling, teenage life in India by Mr. Ryan, and Christmas decorations. A style review was held for the girls at a local clothing store. The club kept quite busy working on fair booths, bake sales, and planning their installation service. The girls attended a district meet at Estherville. The senior members took a national Betty Crocker test on homemaking skills, and Merrie Veitch won the title "Homemaker of Tomorrow."

ART CLUB OFFICERS: Suzanne Martin, Marvin Freeburg.

Art Club is an organization for students interested in various forms of art. Marvin Freeburg and Suzanne Martin were elected president and secretary-treasurer. Throughout the year business meetings were held on Thursdays in the Art Annex.

One of the projects that the Art Club members undertook was the making of tie clasps, earrings, and pins out of copper. The individual works of Art Club members are often displayed in the show case outside the guidance office.

Mr. Fether, the Art Club sponsor, presented the club's Senior Art Club Award to the outstanding artist at Class Night exercises.

T - CLUB

One of the most important contributions any student could give to the school would be school spirit. We feel that the members of Pep Club and T-Club have done an excellent job in promoting good sportsmanship throughout the school year. Much credit should be given to the girls who ride the pep buses to all the out of town games and are always behind the Tigers' team, win or lose.

The T-Club girls, dressed in the uniform of white letter-sweaters and black skirts, sat together at the games and added a special touch to the cheering section with their hand chants and extra enthusiasm. The Pep Club girls are usually the girls that work and are not able to attend all the games. The project completed this year was the selling of Homecoming pins. The girls wish to thank Miss Barbara Avery for being their adviser this year.

SPANISH CLUB

This year the Spanish Club held its annual Christmas "fiesta," La Posada, at the home of Marcia Howe. At the annual carol singing in Spanish, eight of the homes visited had to refuse admittance with the words, "No pase usted," commemorating the refusal to Mary and Joseph at several inns. At the ninth home where they were admitted, a Mexican dinner was served, the Pinata was broken, and Miss Bryan was crowned "Queen of the Posada."

The guest speaker at one of the club meetings was Mrs. Ramos, a Cuban refugee, who spoke on life in Cuba before and after the Communist takeover.

Other activities in which the Spanish Club participated included a Pan American Day program which is open to the public, the singing of carols in Spanish at the Shopping Center, a candy sale, and a program for the B.P.W. Club.

GRA

The Girls' Recreation Association has done much to create an interest in sports. The organization under the direction of Miss Dow held its business meetings the first Monday of each month. The gym was available to them every Monday and Wednesday after school. Basketball, trampoline, softball, volleyball, bowling, and ping-pong are just a few of the activities in which the GRA members participated.

All high school girls are eligible for GRA membership. Under the point system which has been set up the girls are required to earn one hundred points before becoming active members. Letters are awarded to those who have earned five hundred points, and a state GRA pin is awarded to those who earned one thousand points. A GRA member may earn four points an hour by participating in various sports.

Every month a special activity is planned. A picnic was held in September and a bowling party in October. For initiation in January the new members wore white blouses and black ties to carry out this year's theme, "The Underworld." The girls' trampoline team performed before an enthusiastic crowd during halftime of the basketball game January 25th. The election of officers in May completed another successful year for the GRA.

CONCERT

One hundred and ten members made up the Spencer High School Band under the capable direction of Mr. Robert Dean. The band again had a very successful year, of which Spencer High can be proud.

The band was chosen as one of the top five bands in the United States to appear at the Mid-West National Band Clinic held at the Sherman House in Chicago, Illinois, on December 22. Although many hours of extra practice were needed to prepare such a concert, the band was well rewarded by being named the top band to appear at the Clinic and receiving the only standing ovation. Mr. Dean was presented a medal for his outstanding work as a band director and for his selection as director of the United States of America High School Band during the summer of 1962.

The Pep Band, Marching Band, and Pit Band all did their share in boosting school spirit. The Pep Band, led by this year's student director, Dick Kunz, played at each home game during the basketball season. The Pit Band played for the pep meetings.

The band played for the Tri-County Teachers' Institute, took part in massed and selected bands in the Clay County Music Festival held in February, presented their annual winter concert, and attended solo and ensemble contest, where they again achieved a creditable record for Spencer High.

Trumpet Virtuoso, Rafael Mendez, appeared on our stage for the fifth time when he was guest artist for the annual spring concert. Working with Mr. Mendez was an experience which will long be remembered by the students.

Climaxing this year's musical activities was the participation of the band in the Baccalaureate and Commencement services, thus completing another rewarding year of musical experiences.

MARCHING BAND

The one hundred ten piece Spencer High School Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Dean, performed at home football games, including an elaborate halftime performance at our Homecoming game. The band also marched at the Clay County Fair, the Appaloosa Horse Parade, and other community activities.

MAJORETTES for this year are Linda Hanson, Linda Wilbur, Cheryl Hanson, Bonnie Wilbur, Kathy Shields, and Jeannette Hughes. Patty Lake is alternate this year, and John Peterson is Drum Major.

CHOIR

The Spencer High School Mixed Chorus had a very successful year under the direction of Mr. Haendler.

For the fall concert, the choir presented "Songs of Paradise Valley," followed by the Christmas concert, "Songs for Our King." Included in the programs were solos and madrigal groups. This year the choir had a cantata for Easter entitled, "No Greater Love" and the annual spring concert, which proved to be very thrilling to both the audience and the choir.

Both the High School Choir and the Eighth Grade Choir took part in the Clay County Music Festival which is held each year in January. Guest director this year was Mr. Gordon Ohlsson from Coe College. The festival was concluded with a song combining the band and choir.

Again this year one of the quartets attended the Northwest Iowa Choral Festival at Cherokee and learned much about choral singing. Many small groups and soloists backed up the choir at the special meetings, concerts, and contests.

The highlights of the season came when the Spencer High School Choir sponsored the appearance of the Augustana College Choir, directed by Mr. Arnold Running.

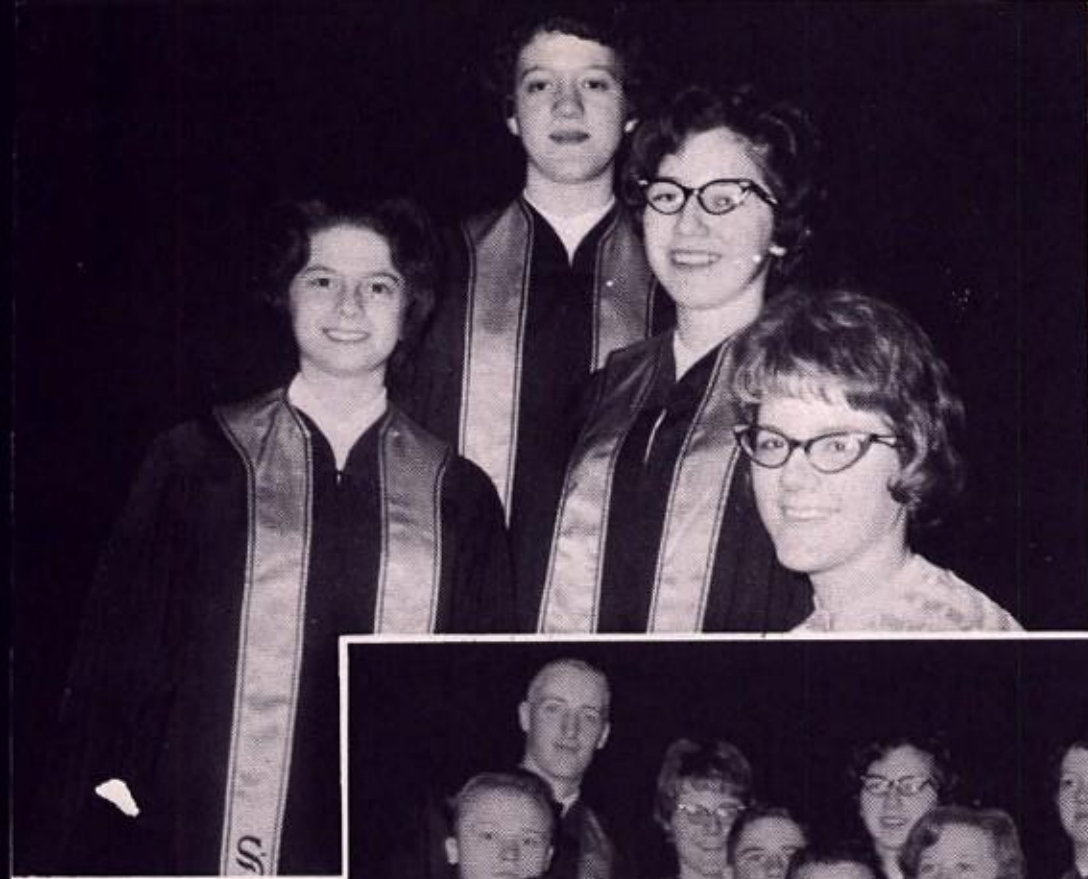

The choir rounded out a fine year in their final appearance at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Special recognition is due to the accompanists who were Diane Appleby, Alice Bellows, and Dawn Lehman.

THESPIANS

Thespian Society, which is affiliated with the National Thespian Society, is an organization devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in secondary schools.

Initiation was held in February. Its dignity provided significant impressions on all who attended. Formal initiation serves as encouragement for individual members to advance in the field of speech, dance, music, and writing.

Many of the members received opportunities to attend Broadway plays throughout the season. A professional troupe from New York presented "Tom Sawyer" on our Spencer stage.

The Spencer Drama Club received an honorary organizational membership as a result of their annual scholarship to an outstanding junior actor and Mr. W. P. Halloran, a local businessman received an honorary membership for his generous support of the department.

SPEECH III - DEBATE

Debate encourages logical thinking and enables the individual to gain the ability to express himself. A debater must define and investigate the problem, then work for the solution and the final acceptance of that solution.

The debaters pictured above participated in numerous debates with neighboring schools and debated at the annual Buena Vista College invitational, where Andrea Barstad won top recognition and was awarded a $400 scholarship.

Spencer Debate squads also participates in the Iowa High School state speech series held in the spring.
